It is calculated that three or four bundred vacancies under various branches of Government, are to be filled before the adjournment of the Senate. Several private conferences of Republican members of the House were held to-day, at one of which, Generals Butler and Logan were present, advocating, it is said, the appointment of a special committee to pursue the investigation concerning the impeachment of the President. The New York delegation at their conference recommend the impeachment conference recommend the impeachment question. That it should be referred to a special committee to be composed of the seven members of the late Judiciary Committee, and to be returnted to the present. The bill introduced into the Senate to-day by Mr. Harlan, for the admission of Colorado, is substantially the Edmunds amendment bill, so called, with an additional clause, continuing in force, in terms, the present territorial equal suffrage law of Congress, and reserving the right to enforce it and the civil rights law in the State. The changes in the Senate and House of Repre-

Congress, and reserving the right to enforce it and the civil rights law in the State. The changes in the Senate and House of Representatives since last Congress leaves little doubt in the minds of the friends of Colorado that the State will be admitted at an early day. The Cable All Right but the Wires Down in Ireland.

Dispatches from Heart's Content reper the Cable working splendidly, but that the Irish wires are down, probably in consoquence of the storm. It may be possible, however, that the Fentans are "up" sgaim. BY STEAMER.

The steamer Andalusia was a first class vessel, having just been put in order at great expense. She was built at Fairhaven, Cr., was formerly in the U.S. Navy, under the name of luka, 1,000 tons burthen, about two years old, and was worth about one hundred thousand dollars. She belonged to Arthur Leary, and was partially insured. Her eargo of general merchandise was worth probably $12,000, and was probably nearly all insured by the many persons to whom it belonged. The Andalusia, at the time of her loss, was under command of Capt. Wm. II. West. The following is a list of passengers: The steamer City of Antwerp, from Liverpool the 20th and Queenstown the 21st of February, arrived here yesterday with pus-

It is said that O'Connor and Stephens are identical, and if so he is a bolder and better man than is supposed. Time will tell.

Arrests are now made by wholesale—by the dozen in fact. The police bave their hands full, and the prisons, their cells. The incautious use of an Americanism in conversation is enough to make a "suspect."

The Special Commission pursued the even tenor of its way slowly, and sadly for the unfortunate prisoners and their families. Many of the prisoners plead guilty, and were sentenced to terms of imprisonment varying from 15 years to 1 year. The long-Suicide in a Station House.

About ten o'clock hast evening, while the doorman connected with the First Precinct Station-house was going the rounds of the cells his attention was attracted by a strange sound which emanated from one of the apartments. Hastening to the cell he found the occupant — a young woman named Ann Augustus—suspended by the neck to the grating of the cell door, apparently in the last agonies of death.
